

EEBA's Educational Series

HOUSES THAT WORK.

HOUSES THAT WORK Training is coming to Dayton, OH. Saturday, August 9, 2008

REGISTER TODAY! >

Learn how to make
GREEN
work for you!

What Topics Will Be Covered?

- Design concepts for advanced framing, moisture management, HVAC efficiency, Insulation, IAQ & Ventilation control
- Evaluation tools to measure your knowledge of high performance construction detailing
- Re-engineering strategies for maximum efficiency
- Construction detailing for the high performance building envelope
- Real-life success stories and regional case studies
- How to successfully apply the latest technologies based on regional differences
- Marketing strategies to capture the "green/high performance home" customer

Green Building Symposium

Presented by the Dayton HBA
Friday, August 8th
www.HBADAYTON.com

Registration: 8:00 am

Session: 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Cost: $135

HBA Dayton or AIBD Members: $125

Full curriculum available at www.eeba.org/housethatwork

Location:

Holiday Inn Dayton Mall
31 Prestige Plaza Drive Miamisburg, OH 45342

Presenter:

Justin Wilson, EEBA Certified Trainer

Contact information:

Dona/Jill at EEBA
952-881-1098 or dona@eeba.org or jill@eeba.org

Why Should I Attend?

- Full-day Building Science Curriculum & Materials
- Climate-Specific Builders Guide (a $45 value)
- Participation in Product Application Demonstrations
- Admission to Product & Technology Expo
- Continental Breakfast, Lunch & refreshments
- CEUs for AIA, AIBD, RESNET, LEED and NAHB's CGP designation
- "Best educational value in the industry-you can apply the information the next day and it works!" - EEBA Survey of attendees 07

Sponsored by:

Ohio Department of Development

HBA

HOME BUILDERS ASSOCIATION of Dayton

"100% of those who attend would go to another Houses That Work session"

-DOE Survey '06